REMINISCENCES OF AN EARL

Boston of the Time When One of Its Early Settlers, William Salter, Built a House in a Lane Leading to the Bay at the Foot of the Common, and of the Days When Frog Lane Was That Part of Boylston St Between Washington St and Park Sq --Winslow Lewis and the House He Once Lived In Near the Old Providence Station,

JOVIAL OLD-TIMER WHO WROTE THE SONG "BARREL OF BEER" AND "GAFFER GRAY.

FRIENDLINESS FOR THE PEOPLES OF OTHER COUNTRIES.

Peace League, Encourages the Inculcation Into the Minds of Young People the Spirit of Justice and Equality to Others.

Mrs Fannie Fern Andrews, Secretary of the American School

MRS FANNIE FERN ANDREWS

Sui Sin Far, the Half Chinese Writer, Tells of Her Career

