Dear Harold Rugg,

I have just received
your nice little letter kindly forwarded by Mr. Luman.
I am glad to hear that you are such a student,
also to know that you
liked my little stories.

Of course I shall be glad to let you
have my autographs.
It is a very poor
one. Perhaps I should say "they" as I have both an English and a Chinese name.

Thanking you for the compliment of asking for it

Yours sincerely
